January 22, 1982

Senior Interdepartmental Group No. 4

PARTICIPANTS: See List Attached
DATE AND TIME: January 21, 1982, 2:00 p.m.
PLACE: Department of State, Room 7219
SUBJECT: Intermediate Range Nuclear
Forces (INF)

Under Secretary Stoessel convened a meeting of the SIG on January 21 for the purpose of resolving the remaining outstanding issue in the draft INF treaty text; specifically, how to deal with land-based conventional cruise missiles with ranges from 1800-5500 kilometers.

It was noted that the issue is an important one, in terms of its possible implications for other arms control negotiations, present and future military requirements, and the President's November 18 INF proposal. The agencies presented their views but were unable to reach a consensus, and it was agreed to refer the issue to the NSC.
